STRIVE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Together we can build a better tomorrow

Hosted by

&

at The Ohio State University

What is it?

Strive to make a Difference is an all-day conference centered around Model U.N. Ultimately, the goal of the symposium is for students to work together to become informed global citizens. The conference is open to students from all over Ohio (500 spots are available).

I've never done Model U.N. Can I still participate?

Yes! For those without Model U.N. experience, an optional workshop will be provided at no extra cost. In addition, university students and educators will be available as resources to participants throughout the conference.

What is the cost for participating?

The current registration fee is only $25.

Where can I get more information?

Contact your school's symposium advisor or chaperone!
